

Bewerbung | Information | Beratung

Gutenbergstrasse 40b
CH-3011 Bern
T 031 311 91 55
info@triiio.ch
www.triiio.ch

What to consider when writing your spontaneous application letter:

A spontaneous application, also called an unsolicited application, is not sent in response to a job advertisement, but spontaneously to a company. It is advisable to contact the company by telephone beforehand and to mention the telephone contact (with whom? When? What motivated me during the conversation?) in the introduction of the letter.